We tend to ignore or downplay the many passages where the unseen realm is made visible, along with their implications. The author is enthusiastic about how his own eyes have been opened by the text, so he has written this book to open the eyes of his brothers and sisters in Christ to this same unseen (but very real!) realm.

Practice Unseen Passages: In every single year, the questions related to the unseen passages used to be asked. So, for the better understanding, the students should practice the passages and try to write the answers without any help. Prepare Poems and their Explanations: Now, comes the Literature part. The students should read all the poems and ...
